What sake mood are you in?

Daiginjo has at least 50% of outer layer is polished giving a more refined flavour

Ginjo has 40% of the outer layer of rice polished and has a fruity fragrance

Futsu shu is regular sake that may have brewers alcohol added to enhance the flavour of the sake

Junmai is made purely only with rice, rice koji and water. Higher acidity, less sweetness

Genshu is undiluted sake. This was a sake you only used be able to try at the sake brewery itself

Honjozo has more flavour and is great with food

Nigori sake is a cloudy sake that is strained through a coarse cloth leaving some sake mash behind.
